ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
BANK OF ITALY BUILDING
BAKERSFIELD, CALIFORNIA

February 26, 1924.

Mr. Charles F. Lummis,
200 East Avenue 43,
Los Angeles, California.

Dear Sir:

I enclose herewith Money Order for $1.50. Will you be kind enough to forward to the following named person, at the address given, your present issue of old Spanish songs:

Miss Elizabeth Borton,
Stanford University, California.
~ Box 84.

I am informed by Mr. Lee Irvine, of Bakersfield, that you have in contemplation the publication of other issues of old California songs, and I would be much obliged if you would forward them as issued to the address above given and send me a statement of the same as they may be forwarded.

Yours truly,

F. E. Borton
